FOREWORD

In the Sacrament of Baptism, we were instilled with the flame of the Holy Spirit, who has ever guided us in wisdom and grace, especially through these past four years. On first entering St. Joseph Central High School as freshmen, the goal of Graduation Day loomed distantly in our minds; but alas—soon it arrived.

With both sadness and joy in heart, one hundred thirty seniors stepped forward to receive their diplomas. No more would the familiar rooms and corridors echo with the voices of those who had found knowledge and understanding "within these hallowed walls."

Yet that which was attained here can never be lost. Behind us are fond memories; before us, the individual dreams waiting to be transformed into reality. The perpetual flame of truth, burning in our souls, will illuminate the way to those ideals.

Whether it leads to a vocation within the married, single, or religious state matters not; for on whichever path God places us, that flame, will radiate its light more brilliantly with every step. Clear must our track of light shine if those behind us in time are to follow.

CLASSES

"I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out."

II Esdras XIV 25

With a better understanding of both God and our fellowman, with the knowledge and wisdom necessary to meet the future's challenge, we take our place in society. This candle, glowing fervently, will cast its light on those sometimes dark passages, running through life's maze. By resting our hands in Christ's and allowing Him to guide us, we shall find the way. At the right exit, eternal happiness awaits.

Sister Mary Anita

OUR THANKS

As chanting birds
sing praise
With notes of cheerful song,
So we, too, hand
our thanks to them
Who've helped us
come along.

As we thank God
each day
For grace to do
what's right,
So we, too, hand
our thanks to them
Who've given us
the light.

By our wholehearted participation in the numerous activities opened to us, we have broadened our horizons greatly. These "good works" allowed the seeds of learning to flower by enabling us to put into practice some of the education gained in the classroom. Taking the lantern, let it reflect its light on those moments, shared by all in a true Christian spirit.

SPORTS

"The pure soul shall mount on native wings, disdaining little sport, and cut a path unto the heaven of glory, leaving a track of light for men to wonder at."

King Edward III

Determined to become the victors, our athletes have repeatedly met the opposition with zeal and courage burning within them as radiant as the Olympic torch. Won or lost—each game portrayed an undefeated spirit and true sportsmanship among the players. For future sport participants, ours have traced a "track of light", which will surely bring honor to those who follow it.

Coach Rodrigues and Co-captains Bill Mendonsa and Shaun Kirby go over plays for an up-coming game.

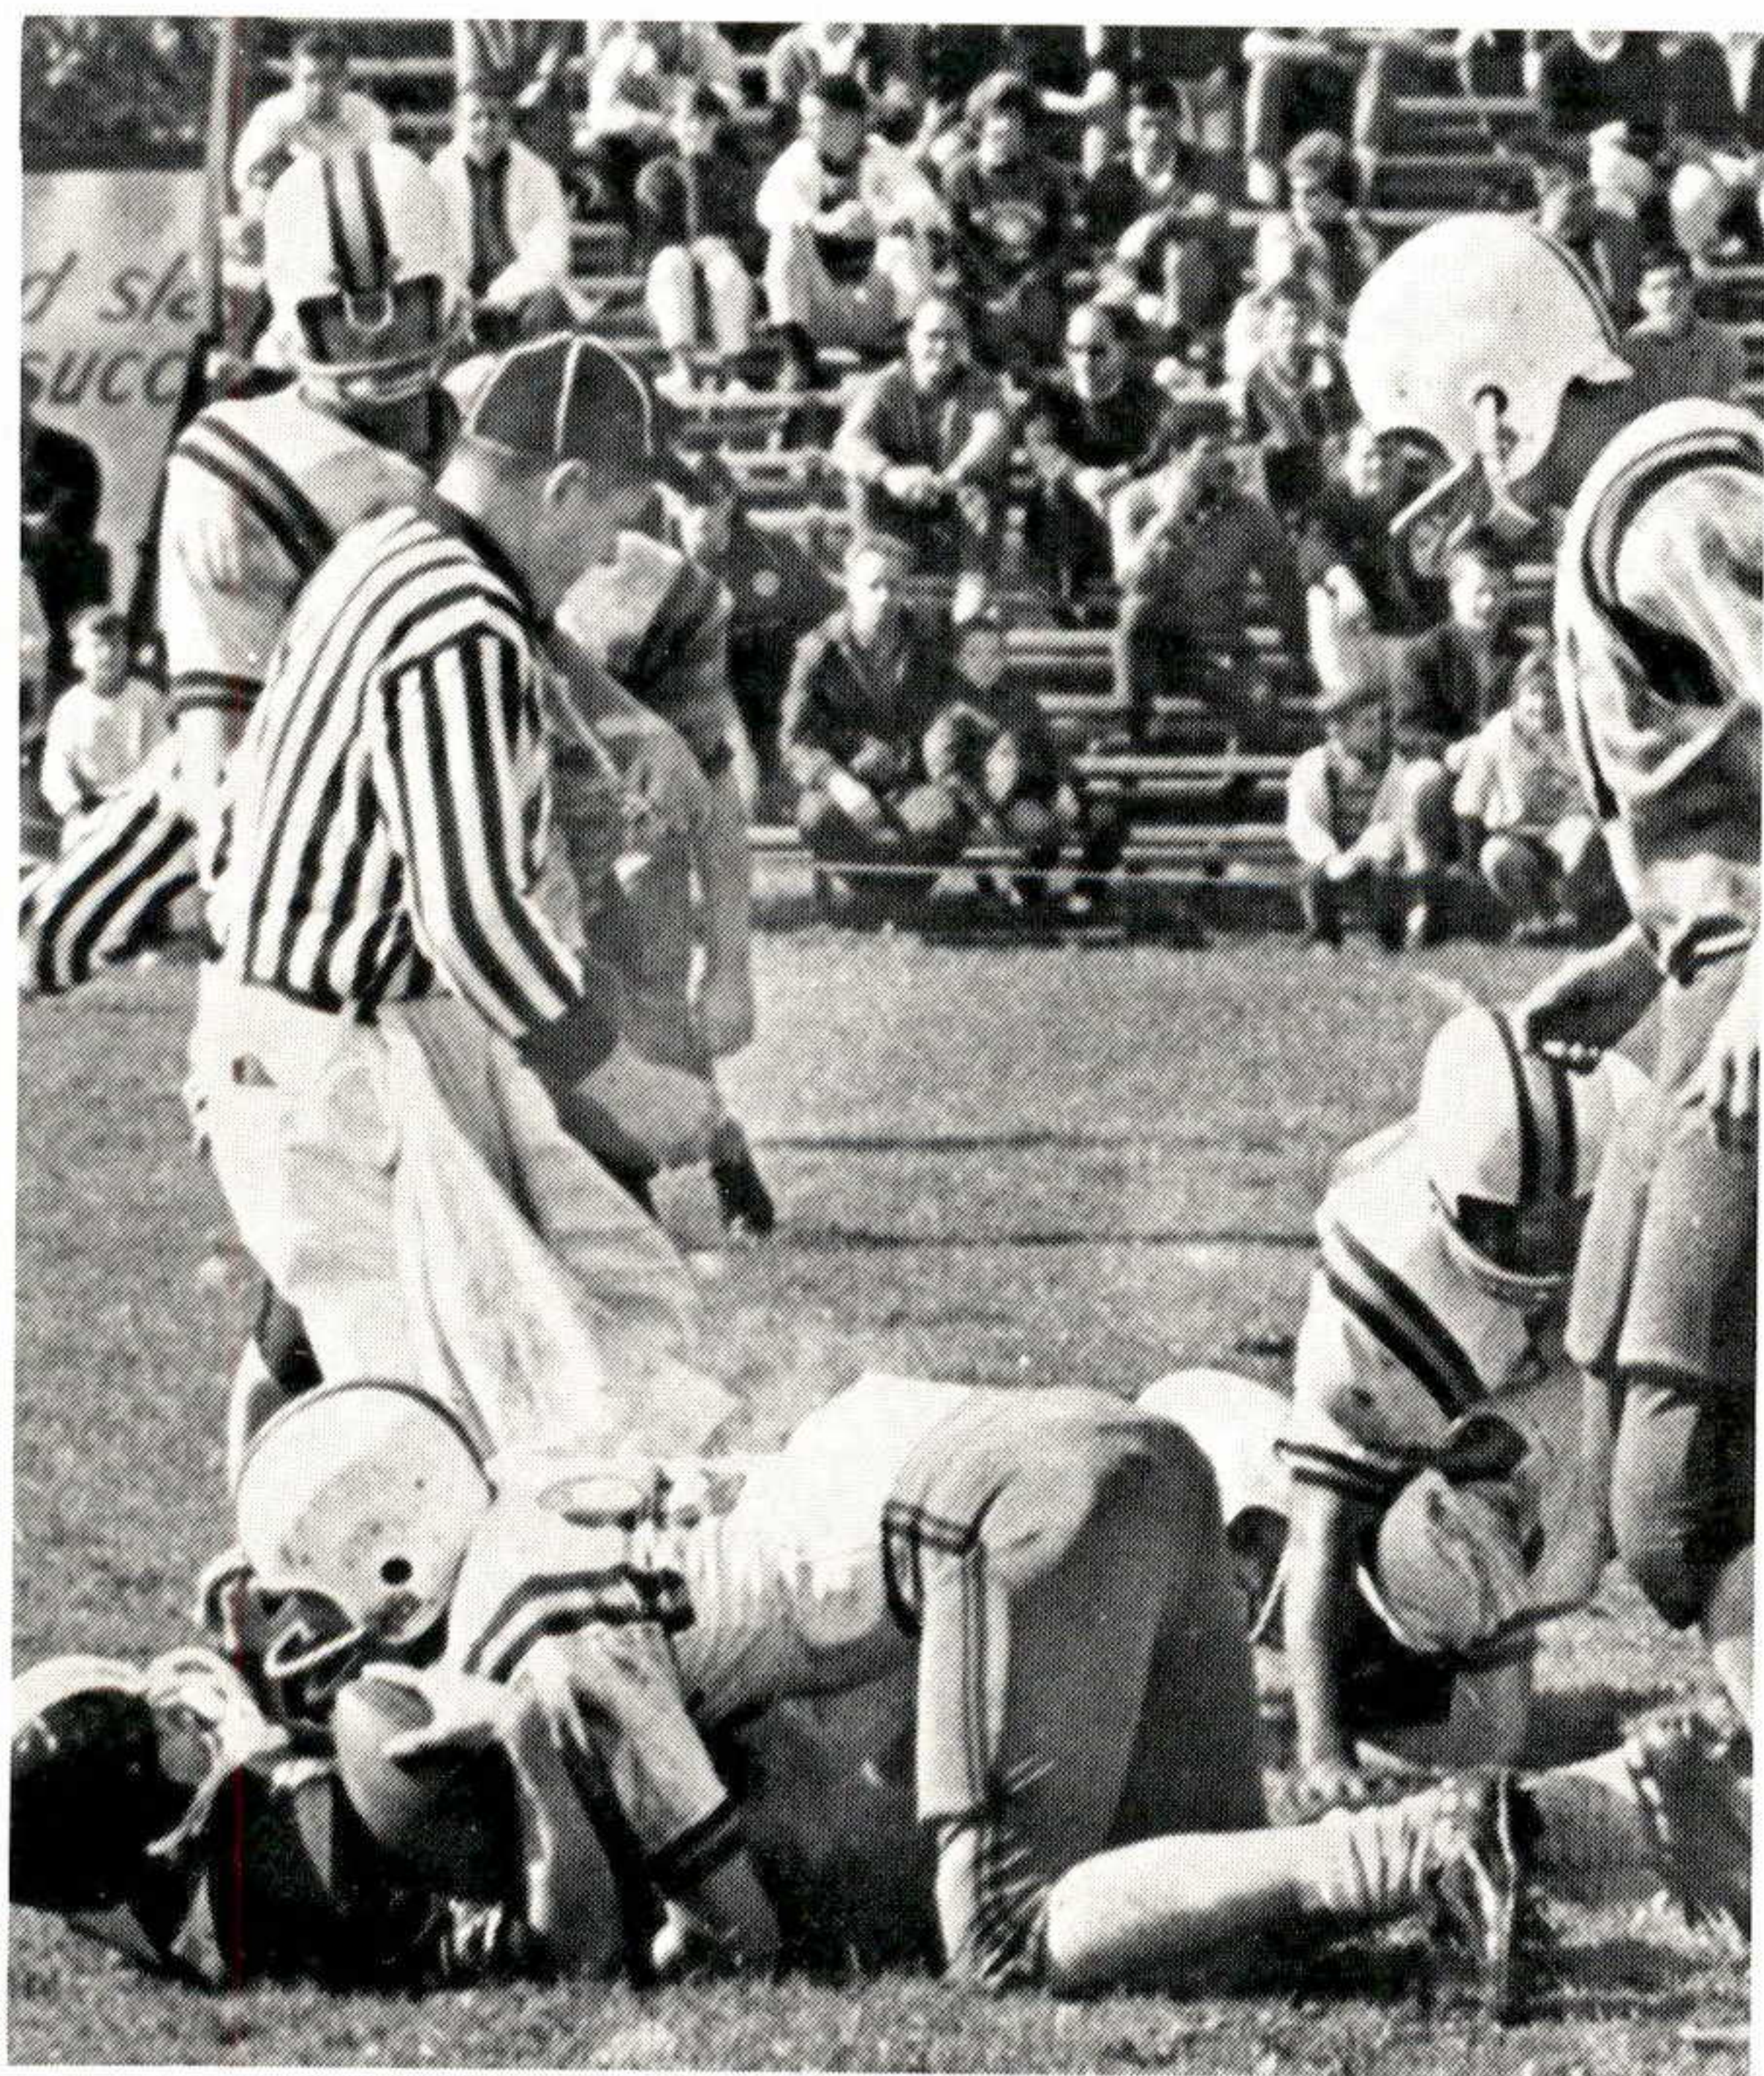

The forward line of St. Joe gets the call again as it throws a Turners Falls' back for a large loss.

Great defensive play by Tom Sinopoli, Shaun Kirby, and Willie Woodson throws an opposing back for a large loss.

Willie Woodson moves in, along with Bob Betters, to get the ball away from St. Joe North Adams.

Bob Betters jumps high to block a shot made by a P.H.S. hoopster.

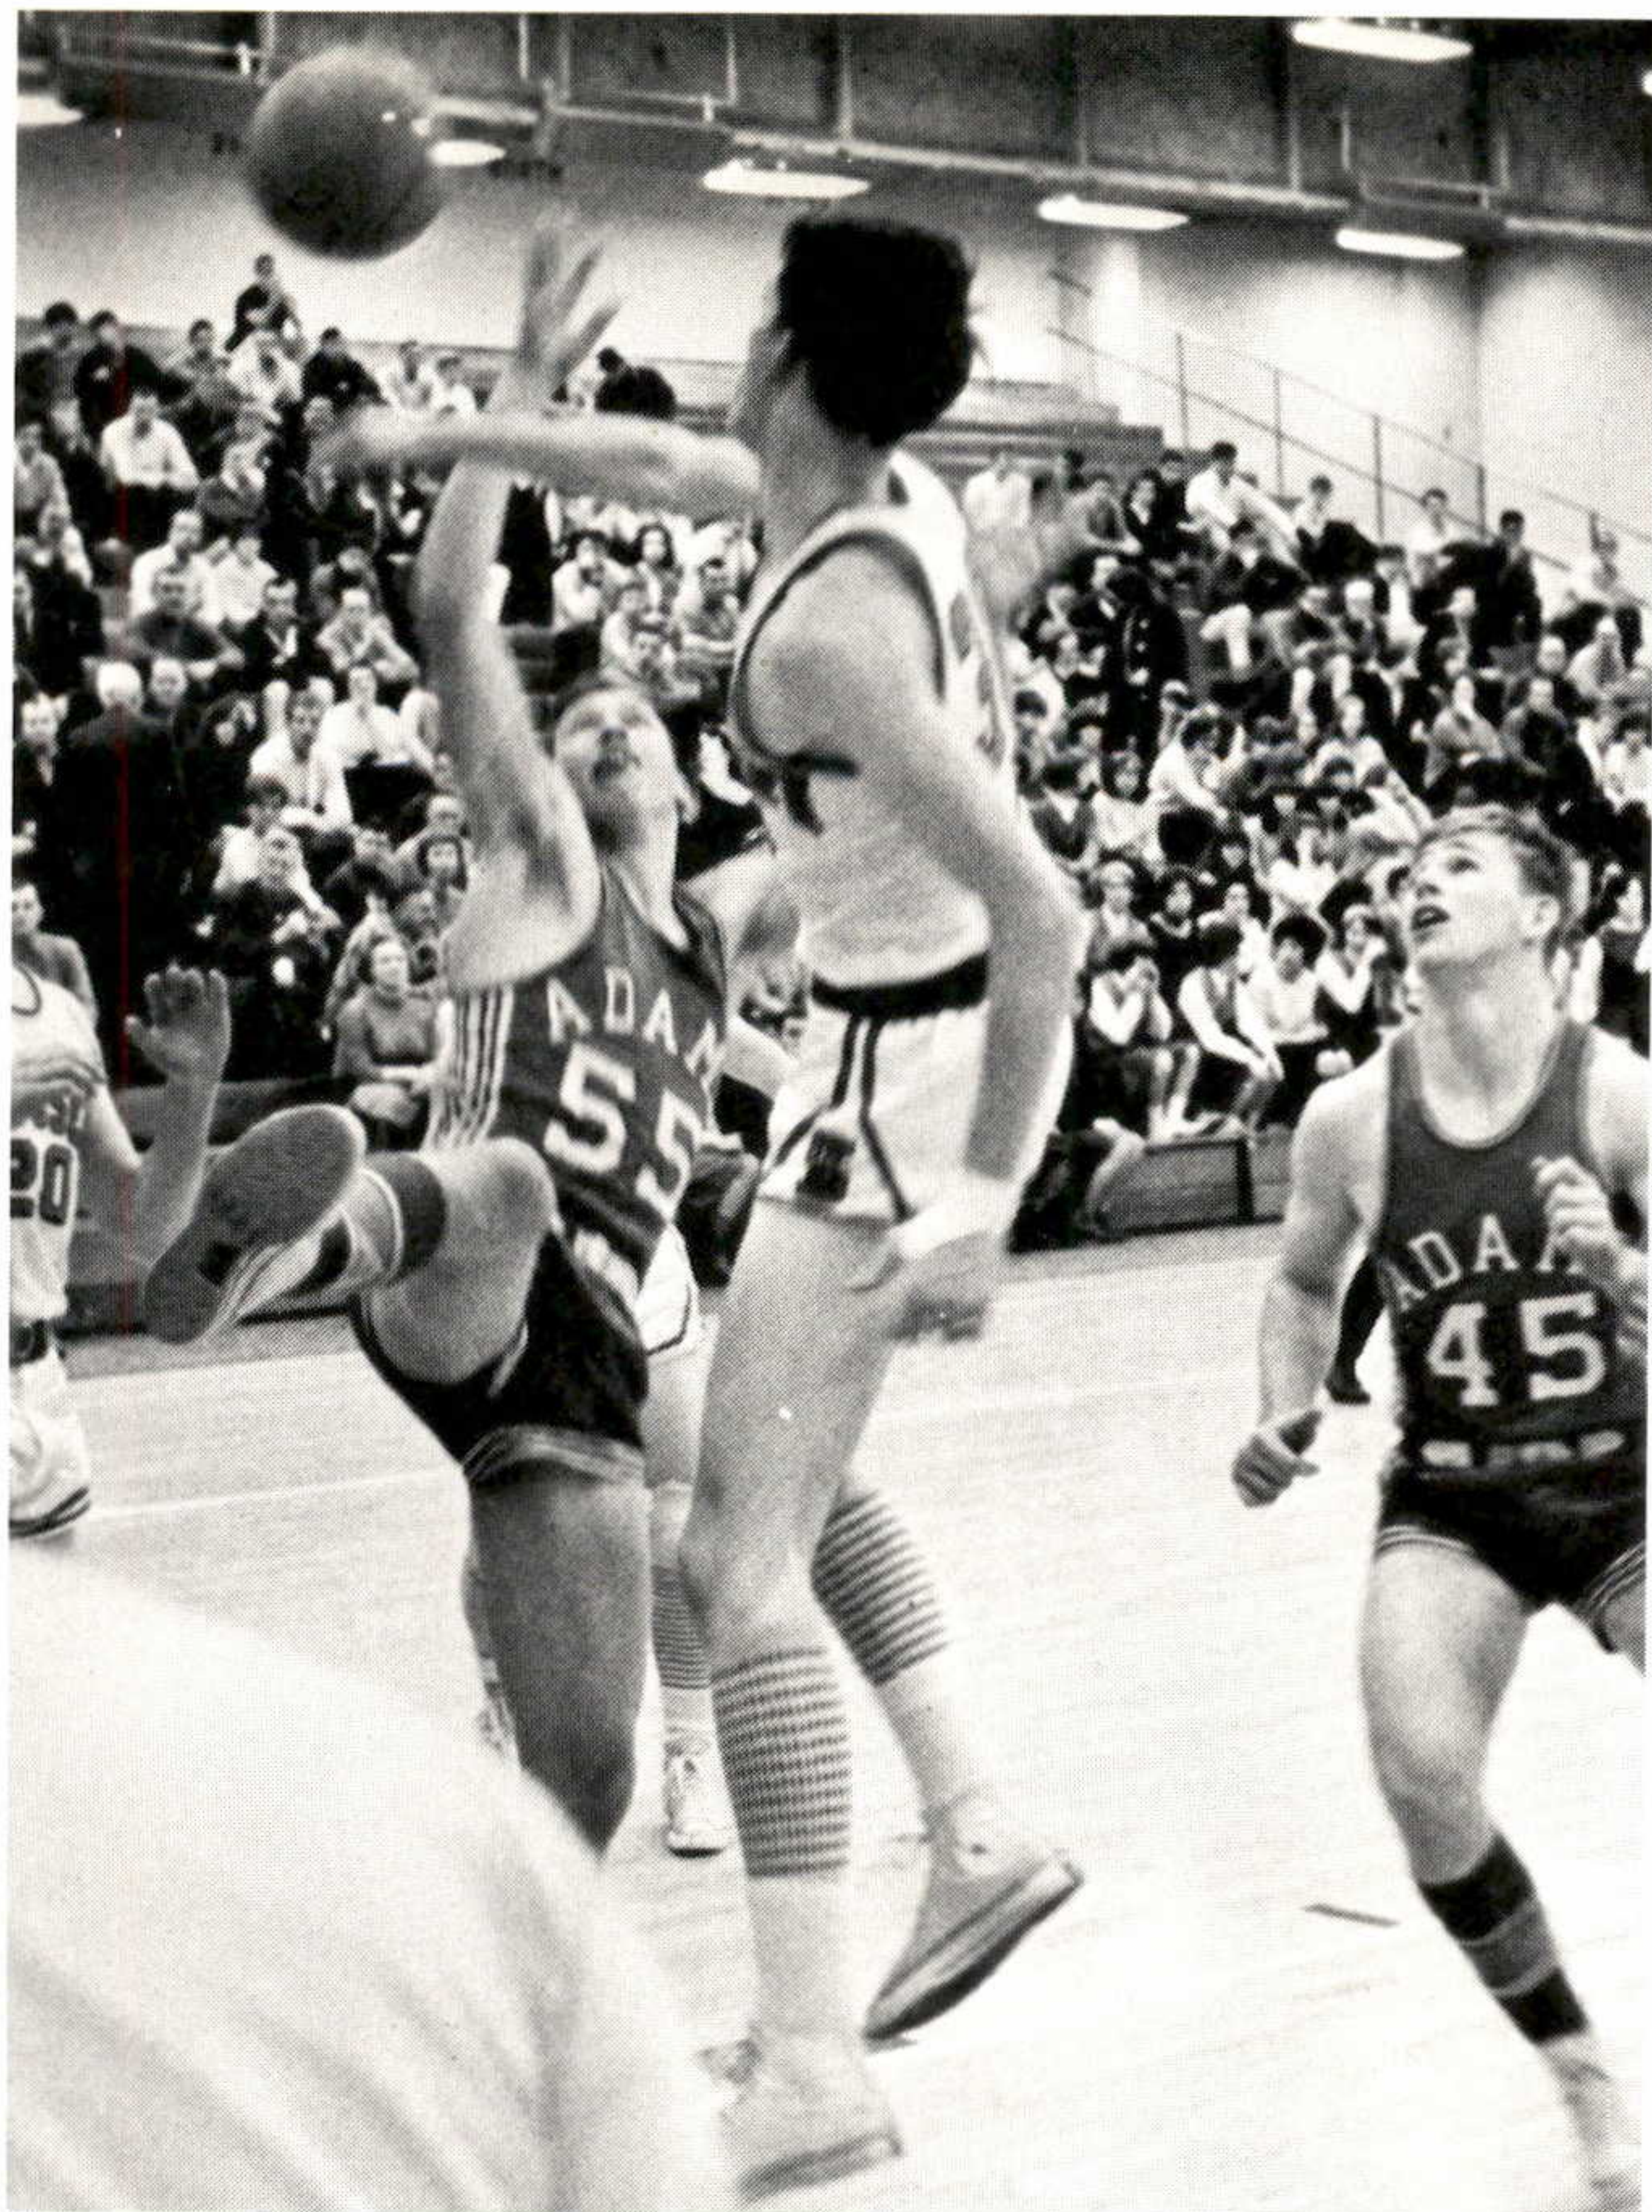

Co-captain Tom Sinopoli goes up with a St. Joe N.A. player for a rebound.

That's the way to jump! Big Bob Betters taps off as he bats it to Jack Clark against Adams.

Let them fight! This is what Willie Woodson and Bob Betters say.

Bob Betters is wondering if the game is soccer or basketball as he chases the elusive ball.

Safe! Tommy Lonabocker slides into third base on a great effort against Adams.

"Throw it!" is what Co-captain Billy Herman is probably trying to say.

CHORUS

Our school days are over,
Gone with the years,
But we hold the mem'ries,
And with them the tears.

Our first year at St. Joe,
Began our new life,
Accepting gifts of learning,
In times of joy and strife.

Advancing in mind,
Sophomore year was begun,
All our friends and our dreams,
Were a part of the fun.

Then we were Juniors,
The future very near,
The games, the Prom, the treasures,
We hold them so dear.

Now we are Seniors,
Saddened with farewell,
Grateful for the lessons,
Taught to us so well.

Into the world,
We will go on our way,
By the light of the Word,
Shining forth on our days.
